Artist Days 2010

Calling All Artists!

Heathcote Botanical Gardens invites you to participate in Artist Days 2010 consisting of four unique opportunities to be inspired by nature!

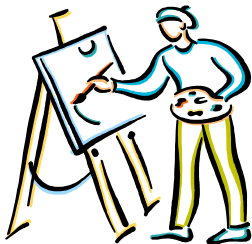

Explore the flowers and the foliage of the subtropics, both native and exotic at HEATHCOTE BOTANICAL GARDENS. Picturesque structures, including an early 1900's Florida home and a Pioneer House, herb garden, and Japanese Garden all provide an abundance of inspirational sites. Come relax and enjoy the beauty and peace of Heathcote. The garden is closed to the public on this day.

Capture the quaint architecture and riverside tropical setting of historic EDENLAWN PLANTATION. Plans for renovating the buildings, gardens and winding paths of this cottage community are underway. See photos and a history of the fascinating site at <http://edenlawnplantation.com>.

Enjoy peace and serenity of lovely HACKBERRY HAMMOCK. This exquisite rural property features a pond, country home and outbuildings, and diverse flower beds and gardens.

Be inspired by the grassy vistas, beautiful hammocks, abundant wildlife and even a tree house at ADAMS RANCH. This is where Bud Adams captures the pristine backcountry of Florida through his photography. Learn more about Florida's largest working ranch at www.adamsranch.com.

SPECIAL WET PAINT EVENT! Return to the Gardens to capture one last glorious evening. Display and sell your Artist Days inspired work to visitors during the Wet Paint Cocktail Party!
